

13th February 2019.

Dear Parents/Carers,

As part of homework at John Palmer Public School, students are expected to participate in the home reading scheme. The home reading scheme will cater for all students no matter what level they are reading at. Each student will receive a reading book and an activity to develop their comprehension skills in a plastic folder.

This year, the students in Stage 1 will be using 'Literacy Planet' which is an online reading program in school and as part of their homework. The cost of accessing this program is $12.00. Students will also be using 'Mathletics' as part of their weekly homework and will also have access to this program whilst at school. The cost of accessing this program is $11.00. The total cost of accessing both these programs is $23.00.

Could you please forward the $23.00 as soon as possible so that homework can commence on Monday 25th February 2019.

Homework will be discussed at the Parent Information Morning on Thursday 21st February.

Regards,

Stage One Teachers.
